This is a simple recording based work for people who know their native language and English. Work is about normal conversation where both languages are used together. It is easy for people who are comfortable speaking and switching between languages.

Project Overview

This project is about code-switching conversation recording. In this, two people talk naturally and switch between native language and English in the same conversation. It should feel real and not scripted.

Job Type

- Part-time work
- Fully remote
- Flexible working hours
- Tasks to be completed within one week

Who Can Apply

- Native speakers of any target language
- Fluent in English
- Comfortable in switching between both languages

Non-native speakers are not allowed for this project.

Recording Requirements

- Two participants required for conversation
- Clean audio without background noise
- Each recording around 10 minutes
- Maximum work is up to 1 hour per pair
- AI or generated voices are not allowed
- Topics include banking, healthcare, and travel

Payment Details

Payment depends on language pair. Rates are given in project sheet. Payment is processed after client approval.
