We are hiring a Senior Wedding Film QC Editor.

This is not a basic editing work.

This role needs strong taste, clear judgment, and calm communication.

You will check wedding films before final delivery.

You will look for weak storytelling.

You will catch pacing issues, missed emotions, and delivery problems.

You will help the team send only premium work to clients.

What You Will Do

- Review wedding films before delivery
- Check if the film meets premium quality
- Find issues in storytelling and pacing
- Read client feedback carefully
- Record clear revision notes for editors
- Approve only delivery-ready projects
- Stay in touch with editors during work

The clients are international.

Their style can be very different.
Some want emotional storytelling.
Some want luxury.
Some want fast cinematic cuts.
Some want documentary style.

Your job is to understand the client's need.
Your personal taste should not decide the final output.
Quality means matching the client's vision.

What We Need

- Good English communication
- Strong attention to detail
- Good sense of storytelling
- Ability to manage feedback with clarity
- Comfort with AI translation tools
- Willingness to work in a fast workflow
- Experience in wedding film editing or QC work

You may get feedback in English.
You may also get voice notes, Loom videos, WhatsApp recordings, and written notes in other languages.
You do not need to know all those languages.
You should be able to understand them with tools and explain the changes clearly.

Working Hours

The available time is 6:00 AM to 9:00 PM IST.
You do not need to work continuously.
But you must stay available.
The response time should be fast.
Reliability matters a lot.

Selection Process

Shortlisted candidates will get three real client projects.
You will review each film.
You will understand the client need.
You will note every quality issue.
You will record a Loom video with your feedback.

Compensation

The starting pay is ₹10,000 per month.
The pay can grow with performance.
Good ownership and consistent quality can lead to better compensation.
There are long-term growth chances for the right person.

How to Apply
