Battery OK Technologies is hiring a Telecaller Executive. The company works on EV DOCTOR™, a smart battery diagnostic solution. The goal is to help EV garages and service centers become EV ready.

This opening is for a confident and empathetic person. You will talk to customers. You will explain the product clearly. You will also help the sales team with qualified leads.

Key Responsibilities

- Call EV garages, dealers, service centers, and battery businesses
- Explain EV DOCTOR™ features and benefits
- Share pricing and use cases clearly

- Understand customer needs
- Qualify leads for the sales team
- Follow up through calls and WhatsApp
- Maintain call records and lead status
- Coordinate for demos and closures
- Support customers with polite communication

Requirements

- Good communication skills in Hindi
- Basic English communication skills
- Comfortable with calling and follow-ups
- Experience in telecalling, inside sales, customer support, or lead generation is preferred
- Basic knowledge of EV, automobile, battery, or tools industry is a plus
- Comfortable using CRM, Excel, or Google Sheets
- Discipline and target focus are important
- Patience and clarity in communication are needed

The company offers training on EV DOCTOR™ and battery handling. There are also growth opportunities in sales and customer success. This can be a good opening for someone who wants to grow in the EV industry.

What We Offer

- Fixed pay with performance incentives
- Training on product and customer handling
- Remote or on-site flexibility depending on fit
- Growth into sales or business development
- Paid sick time
- Cell phone reimbursement
- Internet reimbursement

This company is not looking for automated calling tools. It wants real people. It wants someone who can understand customer problems and speak with care.
