Internet Spark is hiring a Tele Sales Executive. The company works in digital marketing and IT solutions. The office is in Ahmedabad. This is an in-office only position.

The work is about talking to leads and closing deals. You will also set meetings with decision makers. You need to explain services in a clear way. You must handle follow-ups and client queries.

English, Hindi, or Gujarati communication will help. The company wants someone who is confident and polite. You should be able to manage calls and CRM records well. A target-driven mindset is important.

Key Responsibilities

- Find and qualify potential clients

- Build a strong prospect list
- Do regular follow-ups
- Set physical and virtual meetings
- Manage the full sales cycle
- Send confirmations and reminders
- Handle inbound queries
- Build long-term client relations
- Explain digital marketing and IT services
- Handle objections in a confident way

Required Skills

- Telecalling or inside sales experience
- Good verbal and written communication
- English, Hindi, or Gujarati speaking
- Understanding of SEO, social media, PPC, and content marketing
- Basic knowledge of web development and software solutions
- CRM record handling
- Time management
- Multitasking ability

The company prefers candidates who know digital marketing or IT services. Self-motivated people will fit better here. The work is fast paced. You should be ready to grow with the team.

Apply Now

Send your updated CV and a short note about your telecalling experience.
